CZAR OF RUSSIA RESUMES ASSAULT

After Defeating Austria Czar Will Proceed Toward Berlin.

BLOODIEST BATTLES.

Loss of Life on Both Sides Appalling—Fight Over Front of Over Three Hundred Miles.

Striving to make its victory so complete as to eliminate Auteria as a factor of war, two million Russians at dawn resumed their attack upon the army of Franz Josef and the bloodiest battle of modern times is reported along a 300 mile line from the Dneister river to Prussia.

After seven days of fierce fighting the Austrion army is being driven further back and from Rome Vienna and St. Petersburg come reports of a great Russian victory.

The Czars forces are reported to have occupied Lemberg the capital of Austrian Galicia and it is said that entire brigades of the defenders have been annihilated.

From St. Petersburg comes admission that the Germans have been victorious in East Prussia but the war office minimizes the defeat and announces that no strong attempt is being made to advance the lines in the north until after the Austrians have been completely crushed.

Dispatches from London tell of the victorious advance of Russia against the Austrians and indicate that within twenty four hours the defeat will be decisive and the defenders in complete rout.

Russian advices assert that the pre arranged plans of the general staff are being carried to the letter and that following the utter defeat of Austria the massed millions of the Czar will begin a resistless advance upon Berlin.

On one scene all acounts agree. The loss of life on both sides has been appalling and the battle may go down in history as the boodiest the world has ever known.

Berlin declares that the Russian advance has been checked and that the enemy has been thrown back in several places with enormous losses.

Rome Sept 2.—Dispatches received here from Vienna say that the great battle in which three million men are engaged on a front of more than 300 miles in north Galicia and east Prussia today reached the heighth of its fury.

Today marked the seventh day of what is claimed the greatest battle in the history of the world. The battle line according to the dispaches extends from Prussia to the Dneister river.

DRINK CRAZED FRENCHMAN

Blows Out Brains After Attempting to Kill Brother in Law

Pillipsburg, N. J. Sept 2—Crazed from drink and worriment over the European war, Etionne De Cottigneis a Frenchman, ran amuck yesterday morning with a revolver and after threatening to take the life of his brother-in-law, went to a stretch of woods near his home and blew out his brains.

De Cottigneis about two weeks ago expressed his desire to return to France and join the army. He left here for New York, where he purchased a ticket to return to his native land, but came back the following day and in view of his family tore to bits the ticket he had bought. His actions alarmed his wife and daughter and a close watch was kept on him.

Instead of going to work yesterday morning De Cottigneis drank heavily all day and early in the evening threatened to kill his wife and daughter. The police were notified and went to his home in Prospect street, where they found a loaded revolver. Learning that his revolver had been confiscated, the Frenchman purchased a new one Monday night and early yesterday morning went to the home of his brother-in-law, Henry De Camp in Lincoln street, removed a screen from a window and fired two shots at his sleeping brother-in-law.

One of the bullets passed through the mattress less than five inches from the sleeping man's body and the other was warded off by striking a rocking chair. De Cottigneis again threatened to kill his wife and daughter who were in De Camp's house, but their cries attracted neighbors and he fled to the woods. His body was found several hours later by two berry pickers.

MANIAC BABYS LIFE SAVED

Train Singles Him Out for Death and Spares Child

Pittston, Pa. Sept 2—Attempting suicide and murder Peter Gradoski 40 years old, flung himself and his 2-year-old daughter, Nellie in front of Lehigh Valley express No. 11, yesterday morning, but succeeded in ending his own life only.

The babe had an apparently miraculous escape. Still held tight in the arms of the dead parent it was picked up 25 feet from the tracks and taken to Pittston Hospital where minor scratches proved to be the only injuries received.

Gradoski fled his home early yesterday morning, clad in an undershirt, and after visiting a neighborng saloon where he wrecked costly mirrors by throwing chairs through them, returned to pick his baby, from a group of playmates then hurrying undisturbed toward the Valley tracks. Neighbors feared to halt him, none suspecting however, his mad purpose.

When the train reached No. 14 Colliery, Gradoski leaped down the embankment to the tracks and in an instant was facing the engine He was hurled as from a catapult, his skull shattered.

CITY OF ANTWERP IS TERRORIZED

German Zeppelin Dirrigible Attempts to Destroy Station.

EFFORT IS A FAILURE.

Bombs Fall Wide of Mark, As Do Shots From, the Airships Flying Too High in Heavens.

Antwerp, via the Hague. Sept. 2—The Belgian capital was thrown into a panic early today when the Germans in a big Zeppelin dirigible, attempted to destroy the wireless station with which communication with the chief Belgian centers is maintained. The effort failed, as the bombs fell wide of the mark. But it was very clear that a real German offensive movement is in contemplation against the city, and further raids are looked for.

It was shortly after 3:30 this morning when the outlying forts signaled the approach of a dirigible. The big Zeppelin was flying fully 6,000 feet high, but the whirring of its propellers as it headed across the wind could be heard The forts at once began shooting at the aerial enemy. But the dirigible was far too high, and the shots fell short of their mark, However the shots had the effect of keeping the big Zeppelin so high in the air that it was impossible for the pilots to discern their point of attack.

When the dirigible crossed the forts and straightened out toward the city proper the searchlights were turned against it. But they failed to carry far enough and they were quickly turned off in order that their lights might not be utilized by the Germans in determining their location.

The dirigible finally dropped a number of bombs, which fell in the suburbs, and in the thinly settled district. The early reports received by the burgomeister said that they did comparatively little damage.

By this time the aerial guns mounted on the high buildings and in the cathedral spire had been placed in action, and a hail of bullets was being directed against the dirigible. Belgian troops also fired volleys from their rifles and finally the dirigible swung around and headed back toward Malines.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT

Fourteen-Year-Old Girl Killed When Grasped Live Wire

Mount Airy Va. Sept. 2—There was a distressing accident Monday afternoon about 6 o'clock when May the fourteen year old daughter of Joseph Cassidy was instantly killed by coming in contact with a live wire that had fallen on the street an hour before. The accident occured on South street in front of the Cassidy residence and in an effort to rescue his daughter Mr. Cassidy had a narrow escape from death.

An electric wire crossing South street had broken and fallen to the ground and the girl for some reason undertook to pick up the dangerous wire. When she grasped the wire 2;200 volts of electricity passed through her body and in the excitement which followed her father seized the girl and received a terrible shock. A physician soon reached the scene and rendered the father aid but the girl was beyond help.

It is not known just how long the wire had been detached from the poles or what possessed the girl to grasp the wire for it seems that several men had warned the crowd of children in the street against touching it.

THE HORRORS OF WAR

Women Ill Treated Boys Mutilated And People Starving

London Sept 2.—In an interview last night the Belgian minister of justice Carton de Wiarts who is in London on his way to Washington as head of a special mission from King Albert to President Wilson to protest against Germany's violations of the laws of war said:

The burning of small villages without any military necessity by the Germans; their massacre of women and children, the kidnapping by soldiers of young girls and the carrying off of civilian men into practical slavery in the German harvest fields is unexplicable. Most terrible of all however was the case of two peasants near Dieste on August 19 who were buried alive head downwards because they refused to act as guides to the invaders. For a similar offense during the same week the aged sexton of the village church at Aerschot was tied to a tree and burned.

We also have indisputable evidence with sworn affidavits of eye witnesses of hundreds of cases of wanton shooting and bayonetting of terrorized peasants all through the battle zones. Belgian men women and children are still lying unburied where the Germans are in control.

Paris ept. 2.—Mrs Herman H. Harjes wife of the Paris banker who with other American women has been deeply interested in relief work yesterday visited the North Railroad station and was shocked by the sights she saw among the Bel- It was by far the saddest sight Mrs. Harjes presented the aspect of a shamble. It was the saddest sight I ever saw. It is impossible to believe the tortures and cruelties the poor unfortunates had undergone. I saw many boys with their hands cut off so that it was impossible for them to carry a gun. Everywhere was filth and utter desolation. The helpless little babies lying on the cold wet cement floor and crying for proper nourishment was enough to bring hot tears to any mothers eyes. Mothers were vainly besieging the authorities begging for milk or soup. A mother with twelve children said: What is to become of us It seems impossible to suffer more. I saw my husband bound to a lamp post. He was gaged and being tortured by bayonets. When I tried to intercede in his behalf, I was knocked senseless with a rifle I never saw him again.

London Sept 2—A Rotterdam dispatch to the Star says:

Travelers from Louvain report the roadsides strewn with thousands of starving women and children Some are nearly naked having fled from their homes in the night Residents are still being executed when shots are fired in the town against German troops.

Nish Servia Sept 2—The following official announcement was made yesterday by the Servian government Shubats has been sacked by the Austrian army in a barbarous manner On the two principal streets there is not a house that has not been looted and damaged Part of the city was burned Whether they passed the Austrians left a trail of ruin and mourning They took hostages from every village"

He died in a drug store while a Samaritan Hospital doctor was administering stimulants. Charles Scipione, of Venango street near Ninth, is a prisoner in the Thirty-sixth district, charged with inflicting the deadly thrust. EXPECTS TURKEY TO DECLARE WAR

Sultan Will Take His Stand With Germany and Austria.

ARMY IS GATHERING

Begins Mobilization of First Line of 200,000 Men All of Whom Said to be Mahommedans.

Rome, Sept. 2—The long predicted entrance of Turkey into the European war is confidently expected to occur today. That the Ottoman government will not wait longer to align itself with Germany and Austria is believed certain. The one question asked is: "What will be Bulgaria's attitude in the event of a declaration of war by Turkey?"

Rome, Sept. 2—A telegram received here from Berlin announces the mobilization of the Turkey army. Following the advice of Field Marshal Baron von der Goltz it is stated the Turkish Government will form an army of the first line composed of 200,000 men, all Mohammedans.

Seventy-two superior German officers forming the German military mission at Constantinople, have been incorporated in the Turkish army and will participate in the war. The presence of the German officers in the army is interpreted to mean that Turkey will fight on the side of Germany.

Washington, D. C. Sept. 2—Grea Britain has asked the United States to take care of her diplomatic interests in Turkey in case of a declaration of war on the allies by the Porte, which is momentarily expected.

The British Embassy has been informed by cable from London that German officers have gone to Constantinople to take charge of the Turkish army, and that a declaration of war from Turkey was expected. Plans already are under way to ask the American Ambassador at Constantinople to take charge of British interests there.

Denial of threatened hostilities involving Turkey and the Balkan States was made by the Turkish Ambassador A. Rustem Bey.

"As regards the rumors concerning the reformation of a Balkan alliance against Turkey, I desire to state that they are absolutely false" said the Ambassador.

FOOD PRICES TUMBLE

Free Markets in New York Prove Effective Curb on Cost of Living

New York, Sept 2—Housewives armed with market baskets stormed the four municipal markets opened yesterday by the Mayor's citizens' committee in an effort to stem the rising cost of food in such numbers that many farmers and dealers had sold out within an hour.

Farmers from the surrounding country, including Northern New Jersey, push-cart merchants, commission men and representatives of one department store, invited by the committee to occupy the new markets, rent free, were on hand in force. They sold their goods under supervision of the committee's inspectors, who were fortified with the latest retail and wholesale quotations.

Prices tumbled. Bread sold as low as four cents a loaf and other staples were correspondingly cheap Thousands of pounds of sugar, at seven cents a pound, were sold during the first hour of trading. The price of potatoes was cut more than one-third, new corn sold for forty per cent. less than the prices demanded at shops directly across the street, apples, peaches and other fruit, freshly gathered were cut in price from 20 to 35 per cent.

WILL BURN BERLIN

Russians Bent on Treating German Capitol as was Louvain

London, Sept 2—The correspondent of the Express telegraphing from the Hague says

"There is the greatest alarm in Berlin over the advance of the Russian troops. The news that the emperor has left the western headquarters and moved to the Russian front has shown the residents of the capital where the immediate peril to their safety lies.

A story has been circulated that the Russians are preparing to avenge Louvain by treating the city of Berlin in the same way as the Germans treated that city. Many of the populace who can get away are going to Norway Denmark and Switzerland.

In connection with the siege of Liege it is told here that the German artillery experts after vainly trying every type of field gun at their command against the forts sent to the Krupp factory for a new 14-inch naval gun which was set down 4 miles from the nearest Liege fort. The first shot from it hit the officers mess house inside the Belgian fortification killing 125 men.

ALLIED LINES ENGAGED TODAY

Heavy Firing Heard About Sixty Five Miles From Paris

SURROUND GERMANS

French and British Position Said to be Better Than at Any Time Since Turned By Germans.

Paris Sept. 2—The allied lines on the French left are engaged today along a line extending from Montdidier, a small station just off the main line from Boulogne to Paris, in the department of Somme into the forest of Compiegne.

The heaviest fighting is reported in the vicinity of Montdidier, sixty-five miles from Pars, where the German infantry are in great strength.

A large force of German skirmishers forming the advance guard of the movement toward Paris, have been partly surrounded in the forest of Compiegne and is being subjected to a fierce bombardment by the French artillery.

It developed today that Gen Paul Pau, who retrieved the situation in Lorraine, is now in command of the French left wing co-operating with the British commander-in-chief, Sir John French.

Heavy fighting continues in the region of Rethel, the center of the Ardennes department, with the allies holding their own. At this point the German assault has momentarily been checked.

Additional re-enforcements were sent to the allies' left today. The position of the French and British declares the war office, is better today than at any time since the German turning movement began.

London, Sept 2, 10:10 a.m—Ad-Advices have been received here fro St. Petersburg, to the effect that the Russian general staff frankly confesses to disaster to two army corps, including the loss of three generals

The Copenhagen correspondent of the Reuter's Telegram Company reports the receipt here of a Berlin dispatch to the effect that the German general staff has published a statement that 70,000 Russian prisoners among them 200 officers were captured at the battle of Gilgenburg. The Russian artillery is also reported to have been destroyed.

Gilgenburg is in East Prussia, thirty-two miles northeast of Koenigsberg.

A dispatch from Rome says the Giornale d'Italia publishes a dispatch from Vienna saying that the Austrian government has made arrangements for the evacuation of Lemberg, Galicia.

The Exchange Telegraph Company publishes a dispatch from its Rome correspondent transmitting the following statement issued at Vienna:

"Recognizing that the occupation of Lemberg by Russian troops is inevitable, the provincial government has removed the archives of state and given instructions to the burgomaster as to the conduct of the city after its occupation by the Russians."

The new building will be placed on the lot on north Cameron rtreet, near West street.

As has previously been stated in the Gazette the members of the City School Board find themselves up against a serious proposition at the commencement of the present school year. They had anticipated a marked increase in the number of scholars who will apply for permits, while during the past few years considerable trouble was experienced in accommodating the average number. In order to relieve conditions, some of the classes will be located in rooms of the old Peabody building this year.

Under the old state laws only children who had reached the age of seven years could enter the public schools. Now those who are six years old are eligible.

All will rejoice to see that the movement for a new high school building is crystalizing. When this shall have been finished there will, it is believed, be ample room to accommodate all scholars for some time at least.

SUMMER DRAWING TO A CLOSE.

While according to the almanac, nineteen days must elapse before the advent of fall, the summer of 1914 is virtually over, although we are liable to have a few more sultry days but with cooler nights. Many Alexandrians who have been spending the heated terms in rural retreats at the seaside and other places are gradually returning to their homes. The excursion steamers will soon tie up until next summer.

The dangers and inconveniences incident to European travel during most of the summer have kept a certain number of our people in their own country. Some Alexandrians had during the spring planned to spend several weeks in Europe, but the outbreak of the war caused them to alter their itinerary.

As is generally the case, the great bulk of Alexandrians have remained at home and borne the heat and burden of the sultry months, vacations being luxuries beyond their reach.

WARRING NATIONS ARE DETERMINED.

General French, who manifested such nerve in the war with the Boers in South Africa several years ago, calls attention to the large number of British officers killed and wounded during the recent battles on the French frontier. These men were not seeking the bubble reputation at the cannon's mouth, but, from all that can be observed, they had been rendered desperate at the suggestion that should the allies fail the British lion will have lost a prestige it may never regain.

On the other hand Germany, fully convinced that it is the object of English to humiliate that country is fighting for its life, as should the fatherland come but second best the Teutons would find themselves as flat as when Napoleon Bonaparte entered Berlin and compelled the people of that city to open the tomb of Frederick the Great for his survey.

Russia, with its colossal army and unlimited resources is in the war to remain until the end, fully determined to wreak vengance upon Austria which has thwarted so many of the Czar's ambitions. Should he succeed in conquering Francis Joseph, he announces he will head his army for Berlin, assuring the world that the German capital will meet a similar fate to that of Louvain.

People from the battlefields upon the French frontier tell us the bushes are bespattered with blood, while human gore can be seen meandering down the sides of hills. Thousands lie dead unburied and what were formerly peaceful towns and villages are now blackened ruins.

The blame for this war is being renounced by all engaged in it it. It is hard for laymen to say upon whom the great responsibility rests, but high heaven will place the blame at the door to which it belongs.

THIN FOLKS MADE FAT

The Way Samose was Introduced—Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater and Sons.

More than half the readers of the Gazette would give almost anything to be plump and rosy instead of thin and scrawny.

Physcians and chemists for years have studied the problem of making a flesh-forming food but it is only within the last few months that a bright man discovered the prescription that taken with the daily meals gave a positive increase in flesh In fact it was so certain in its action that a guarantee was attached to each package stating that if weight did not increase as a result of using it the purchase price would be refunded.

This preparation is now put up in convenient form under the name of Samose.

E. S. Leadbeater and Sons have secured the agency in Alexandria for Samose and as the percentage of satisfactory results from the use of this perscription is so nearly one hundred per cent they feel there is no risk in offering to refund the money if Samose does not do all that is claimed for it.

Everybody that is thin and out of health should begin today the use of Samose with a guarantee like this.

A List Of Names And A Message

It is significant that thousands of Virginians who stand high in the State's professional and intellectual life have voluntarily expressed their opposition to State-Wide Prohibition.

Wherever there exists a true respect for moderation, wherever sound ideals have produced men with broad minds and big hearts, wherever Virginia's ideal of free government is deeply rooted, there is found a hostility to the State-Wide heresy which amounts almost to an instinct.

These are names that stand to the outside world for Virginia:

Harry St. George Tucker, Lexington
Judge Geo. L. Christian, Richmond
Maj. William A. Anderson, Lexington
Col. Walter H. Taylor, Norfolk
Fergus Reid, Norfolk
T. S. Garnett, Jr., Norfolk
Alexander Hamilton, Petersburg
George A. Harrison, Waverly
Judge W. Samuel Goodwyn, Emporia
Dr. Southgate Leigh, Norfolk
Marshall W. McCormick, Berryville
A. P. Thom, Jr., Norfolk
Benjamin F. Kirkpatrick, Lynchburg
Judge D. Tucker Brooke, Norfolk
Randolph Harrison, Lynchburg
Col. Archer Anderson, Richmond
H. H. Downing, Front Royal
Eppa Hunton, Jr., Richmond
William Robinson, Brown Town
J. H. McCue, Bristol
C. V. Meredith, Richmond
J. W. Kinsey, Washington
John M. Lake, Front Royal
St. George Fitzhugh, Fredericksburg
Maj. Holmes Conrad, Winchester

Read the list over again. The history of Virginia is crowded with names like these. They have been borne by the State's foremost lawgivers, by its patriots and its statesmen. Their descendents enjoy a heritage which they dare not barter for a sordid end.

Each one of the men named above and many others have willingly agreed to serve on various committees of the Virginia Association for Local Self Government, for the State at large. Each has expressed his desire to help in so far as it lies in his power, to defeat State-Wide Prohibition and preserve the fundamental principle of Local Self Government.

From time to time, between now and the end of the campaign, there will be published by the Association, statements from these and other equally prominent Virginians who have enlisted for active service under the local self government banner. They will set forth briefly their reasons for opposing State-Wide prohibition, and what they have to say will be worth reading.

It is not an accident that the thinking men of the State are opposed to State-Wide prohibition. It is as natural for these Virginians to fight the Commonwealth's foe when it appears in the form of a threatened legal enactment, as it was for their forefathers to give battle to the enemy when he appeared accoutred in steel.

Bear this in mind:

The Thinking Men of Virginia are Opposed to State-Wide Prohibition.

The doctor's medicine failed to benefit me so I sent for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy upon the recommendation of one of my neighbors. PROHIBITION RALLY

Two big prohibition rallys will be held in Alexandria this week. To morrow night M. J. Fanning will deliver an address at the First Bap tist Church. On Friday night Sam Small of Atlanta Ga will speak at the Opera House.

A THEATRICAL TREAT

Commencing Next Monday Labor Day the Columbia Stock Com pany Will Start Shows

The Columbia Stock Co. an organization composed of ladies and Gentlemen that have made acting a life study, are going to give Alexandria what we havent had for a long time, permanent stock, remaining here as long as business warrants it, presenting during that time three new plays each week.

This company comes here direct from a 12 weeks run in Bridgeton N. J., where they met with great sucess and made many friends and sincerely hope that they will do the same here.

Judging from the criticsim of the Bridgeton papers the Company is far above the ordinary not alone in equipment such a scenery and wardrobe but also as regard their acting abilities and their conduct as ladies and gentlemen at all times.

Our genial manager Mr. B. B. Smith always on look out for the best to be had for his patrons of the Opera House, picked this company out of a number of applicants as being the best suited to his needs, a company that has a large repertoire of plays and puts them on right, in fact a real stock company in every sense of the word not a Repertoire Show.

The prices during this engagement will be 10c upstairs and 20c down stairs children 10c, thus giving every body a chance to see every play without great expense, seeing a two hour show of real plays put on by real people. The first week's attractions will be found in an advertisement in this issue.

The body of Mrs. Maud E. Kennedy a widow forty-five years old was found yesterday in a vacant lot far from the center of Los Angeles. The appearance of the body indicated that Mrs. Kennedy had been asphyxiated with ammonia and her body dragged for some distance. The police believe she was murdered for her jewelry as she always wore a number of diamonds.

Girls Beat Ruebberneck

Milwaukee Wis Sept 2—Seven nude girl stenographers seeking a swim last Sunday resented a rubberneck fellow trapped him on the bank and beat him unmercifully.

Then when his eyes were so hung ed up he no longer could see whether the seven stenographers had donned their clothes or not the girls called a policeman.

The rubberneck fellow is said to be a son of an exclusive family who heard the seven stenographers on a street car plan to take a swim in the Milwaukee river north of the city.

STAUNTON IS NOT BANKRUPT.

It has not cost Staunton a cent to get rid of the saloon.

It is remarkable what a transformation has taken place especially in the street and there is no one who ventures to suggest that there are going to be any backward steps.

These are living arguments that cannot be disposed of by assertions of what is going on in other States—Staunton Daily Leader.
